

Letter of Intent

Dear Anjani Kumar Mishra

With reference to the selection process you underwent with us for the position of Junior Associate with DTwelve Accommodations Private Limited ("Company"), we are pleased to inform you that you have successfully cleared the interview stage.

Training Details:

- Training Commencement Date: 4 May 2026
- Training City: Gurgaon

We would like to inform you that, based on the company's requirements and available job openings, you may be assigned to different locations across India. During the training period, the company will provide accommodation (including electricity) and meals. No stipend will be paid during the training period.

We are excited about the possibility of you joining our team and look forward to a successful partnership.

Your selection is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the verification process, which may occur before or after your commencement of employment with the company.

Please note that this intimation Letter does not establish any legal binding or enforceable obligations for either party. It does not create an employer-employee relationship, agency, contractor agreement, partnership, or any other business relationship between the company and you.

By accepting this Letter, you hereby agree to undertake that you shall abide by the rules, regulations and policies of the Company. You further undertake not to indulge in any acts against the interest of the Company and shall endeavor to maintain an ethical attitude in performing your duties towards the Company.

Yours Sincerely
Surabhi Sanchita
